Michael Diaz and Carlos Gonzalez Featured as Speakers at Singapore Conference

MIAMI, April 23, 2008 – Diaz Reus today announced that Michael Diaz, Jr., managing partner, and Carlos Gonzalez, partner, were featured as speakers at Business Information Asia's "Doing Business in the Middle East" conference, which recently took place in Singapore.

As part of their presentation, Diaz and Gonzalez discussed conducting arbitration in The Dubai International Finance Centre and Qatar Financial Centre. They also discussed advantages and disadvantages of international litigation, arbitration and mediation, which included a hypothetical arbitration in Dubai and strategies for resolving business disputes in a timely and cost effective manner, and the top ten reasons to invest in the Middle East.

Diaz and Gonzalez were selected as speakers for this conference because of their extensive experience in the region handling international arbitration and litigation cases.

Diaz Reus is an international law firm with offices in Latin America, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. The firm's lawyers focus on international trade and business transactions and complex civil and criminal litigation and arbitration matters. The firm's clients include foreign governments, entities, central banks, officials holding public office, domestic and international corporations, financial institutions, private individuals and entrepreneurs.
