Welcome to the 2006 Fall Meeting in Miami, FL November 8-11! We are pleased you have joined us to take advantage of this unique opportunity to meet with international practitioners (both in-house and outside counsel), academicians, and government officials from Europe, North America and around the world and to network with members of the Section and residents of Latin America and the Caribbean.

The Section is committed to delivering the best, most practical and comprehensive education opportunities available to international lawyers. By joining us at the Fall Meeting you may:

- Earn an entire year's worth of CLE in just 3 days!
- Keep up to date on issues important to your practice by hearing from experts who can provide insights into recent and anticipated developments of International Law.
- Discuss the latest legal, ethical and international issues with your contemporaries such as international practitioners, EU and other government officials, in-house counsel and academics from around the world.
- Take advantage of six special tracks of programs on key issues of particular appeal to your practice and interest areas: Business Law, Corporate Counsel, Customs/Trade, Dispute Resolution/Litigation, Law Practice, and Public International Law. Each of these tracks has a substantial number of programs throughout the meeting.
